

AOP 11.01: Shackouls Honors College

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Academic Operating Policy and Procedure (AOP) is to promote an understanding of the Shackouls Honors College at Mississippi State University.

REVIEW

This AOP will be reviewed every four years (or whenever circumstances require an earlier_review) by the Dean of the Shackouls Honors College with recommendations for revision presented to the Provost and Executive Vice President.

POLICY/PROCEDURE

The Shackouls Honors College offers a challenging variation of the standard curriculum, through which qualified undergraduate students throughout the University enrich their academic experiences. For many courses both required and elective, Honors sections have been established. These are limited enrollment sections taught by designated faculty members. There are Honors courses and seminars in addition to these sections of regular courses. To enroll in Honors courses, one must have been admitted to the College, which is University-wide. In addition to Honors course, Shackouls Honors College promotes development opportunities for Honors students, including undergraduate research, international study, and national scholarships. Requirements for joining the College and a full explanation of its offerings can be found in the University catalog (consult the index).
